

American Recovery and Reinvestment Act Implementation Timeline*

State Fiscal Stabilization Fund (SFSF)^ψ, ESEA Title I, Part A and IDEA, Part B will be available in two phases. Funds from these programs are to be delivered by formula from the US Department of Education to the State.

By the end of March 2009

July 1, 2009 to October 1, 2009

Fall 2009

Applications for the initial 67% of the SFSF will be available.^γ

50% of the $10B Title I, Part A recovery funds will be available.

50% of the $11.3B IDEA Part B Grants to States and 50% of the $400M Preschool Grants will be available.

At least 50% of the $500M IDEA Part C funds will be available.

Program funding under $500M to be available

- Impact Aid Construction (40% of the $100M will be distributed by formula and the rest will be distributed through competitive grants at a later date);
- Independent Living Services ($52.5M of the $140M will be distributed by formula, the remaining will be distributed by competitive grants at a later date); and
- Education for Homeless Youth ($70M).

50% of the $540M Vocational Rehabilitation State Grants funds will be available.

The remaining 33% of the SFSF will be available.

The remaining 50% of Title 1, Part A recovery funds will be available.

The remaining 50% of the IDEA, Part B and Preschool Grant funds will be available.

Pell Grants $17.1B and Work Study $200M for school year 2009-2010

State Incentive Grants ($4.35B) and Local Innovation Grants ($650M) will be competitively awarded in two rounds - Fall 2009 and Spring 2010.

Statewide Data System funding ($250M) will be competitively awarded.

Title I School Improvement Grants ($3B) will be available.

Teacher Incentive Fund ($200M) and Teacher Quality Enhancement ($100M) funding will be competitively awarded.

Education Technology State Grants ($650M) will be available.

*Tentative distribution dates under the Department's initial funding guidelines of March 6, 2009.

^ψ SFSF ($48.6B) will be delivered to Governors ($39.8B devoted to public Pre-K to 12 and higher education; $8.8B allocated at the discretion of the Governor for government services).

^γ SFSF funds will be released to by the US Department of Education within two weeks after completed applications are received.

For further information, please contact Reg Leichthy (Reg.Leichthy@educationcounsel.com) or Steve Winnick (Steve.Winnick@educationcounsel.com).